WASHINGTON.

Bill to Naturalize Indians--The Committees--The President issues Orders Against Drunkenness--Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—SENATE.—During the morning hour several bills were introduced and referred.

The consideration of the bill to enable the Indians to become citizens of the United States, was resumed and discussed by Whyte, Thurman and Ingalls.

HOUSE.—The Committee on Privileges and Elections read Spofford and Kellogg's papers and adjourned to meet after the session of the Senate.

In the Finance Committee the silver bill men carried their point The bill will be reported to-morrow to the Senate with some immaterial amendments.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—SENATE.—A bill naturalizing the Indians was postponed to December. During the debate Mr. Thurman said he saw no necessity for the passage of this bill. There was nothing in our laws now to exclude an Indian from naturalization, the word "white" having been stricken out. After the executive session Thurman, of Ohio, submitted a resolution that the committee on privileges and elections be discharged from the further consideration of the credentials of M. C. Butler as Senator from South Carolina. Mr. Conkling, of New York suggested to his friend from Ohio, (Mr. Thurman) that the resolution be withheld until to-morrow morning, unless something was to be gained by taking it up this afternoon. The motion to discharge the committee was unexpected, and several Senators who would like to be heard in regard to this matter were not here to-day. The Senator from Vermont (Mr. Edmunds) was out of the city to-day, but would return to-morrow. A single objection to-day would prevent the consideration of the resolution though he did not desire to make such objection.

Mr. Thurman said he had not intimated taking a vote on this resolutionto-day. He merely desired to have it taken up now so as it would come up as the unfinished business to-morrow. If there should be other business then of more importance, a majority of the Senate could lay this resolution aside. The matter, after a long discussion, went over.

The Vice President appointed Messrs. Davis, of West Virgini , Beck, of Kentucky, Allison, of Iowa, Ingalls, of Kansas, and Cameron, of Pennsylvania, as the special committee to examine the books and accounts of the Treasury Department in regard to alleged discrepancies &c., authorized by the resolution of Mr. Davis agreed to yesterday.

The Committee on Foreign Relations gave partial consideration to nominations—Sanford to Belgium and Hillyard to Brazil. No expression of opinion was given beyond that there were matters connected with both nominations meriting consideration.

Capt. Frank Monroe, of the marine corps is dead.

The Secretary of the Treasury, replying to questions from the House, says the metric system may be used by the beginning of the next fiscal year for customs and post-offices, and on the commencement of the fiscal year of 1881 may be used in a l public and private business.

The President has issued general order number 104, against drunkenness, saying that no person addicted to it can expect to be entrusted with any responsible duty.

A full cabinet session considered the few appointments remaining, but made none.

HOUSE.—The House spent the whole day in discussing and voting on amendments proposed to the Paris Exposition Bill, and finally passed the bill by a majority of 14. It accepts the invitation of the French government; provides for the appointment of commissioners from each State and Territory; allows the use of one or more vessels of war, and appropriates $150,000.

Railroad Meeting.

BALTIMORE, November 20.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad took place to-day; Wm. McDonald and Henry C. Smith succeed, Sam'l W. Smith and F. I King as directors. President Garrett's report shows rather unfavorably for the year's work on account of the railroad wars and strikes, but concludes, "The successful management of the business of the company requires the board to express their appreciation of the efficient services of the officers and employees in all departments who faithfull performed their duties."

Vice Consul in Trouble.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 20.—The following telegram, referring to U. S. Vice Consul Bradford, received from Shanghai, addressed to Consul General Myers: "Bradford was tried for embezzlement. He pleaded guilty and was imprisoned. He appeals to the President. The Chinese are removing the Woosung railway.

Cremation in New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Julius Kirchar, a Lutheran and his wife a Jewess, being unable to agree as to the burial of their dead child in either a Christian or Hebrew cemetery agreed to cremate it which was done at the chemical works of which the father is proprietor.

Killed by a Locomotive.

LAWRENCE, MASS., Nov. 20.—Orlando Abbot and wife of North Andover, attempting to cross the track at Portland street crossing in a light wagon were struck by an engine and both instantly killed. The horse was also killed. The engine and tender were thrown from the track and both considerably damaged.

Mills to be Rebuilt.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—The Borden City Mill No. 1, burned at Fall River Saturday is to be rebuilt. It is proposed by the Company to run the other mill double time for winter at least in order to give the hands thrown out of employment by the burning of mill No. 1 work enough to enable them to pull through the cold season.

Tannery Destroyed by Fire.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., Nov. 20.—Beach & Rodgers' tannery at Harrisville, is burned, loss $50,000.

A Man Shoots His Wife in Church.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 20.—During the services at the Church of the Ascension, Lombard street, above Eleventh, this morning, Alex. B. Sayres walked up the aisle, drew a pistol, and shot his wife Elizabeth, who occupied a pew several feet in advance of where Sayres had been sitting. The bullet entered her back near the shoulder, and she now lies at the hospital in a dying condition. Sayres was promptly arrested. Both parties were regular attendants at the church but have been separated for two years. The husband has already served a term in prison for breaking her arm.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Russia and the Servians---Decree of the Conclave---French Affairs---The Montenegrins--Marine Intelligence.

LONDON, November 20.—It is believed that Russia is disinclined to accept all the conditions demanded by Servia preliminary to her taking the field.

The Council of the Vatican decides that no power can veto the Conclave's selection of a Pope.

The result of the vote in the French Senate yesterday was cheered by the Left. The figures show that the Senate has virtually abandoned the Cabinet, as excluding five votes contributed by the Ministers themselves. The Cabinet commands less than half the Senate. This is regarded as a sign that unless the Marshal henceforth governs with the majority the Senate may be regarded as having also abandoned him.

It is unofficially announced that the Montenegrins have stormed Spitzer, but are kept in check by the Turkish ships in the roadstead.

The ship "James L. Wright," from Liverpool for Southwest Pass, is ashore at North Nist Hebrides, in a dangerous position.

The bark "Ribst," from New York, for Yokoman, is ashore at Brill Macassar, and will be a total wreck. Her cargo is washing ashore

The bark "Gloss," from Baltimore, which arrived at Queenstown yesterday lost her sails. She jettisoned part of her cargo.

PARIS, November 20.—The Official Journal has announced the resignation of the Cabinet which President McMahon has accepted. The Ministers serve until their successors are appointed.

The Republican newspapers comment bitterly on the Senate's vote last night on the order of the day proposed by the Right, regarding it as the commencement of a serious conflict between the two Chambers.

The Conservative organs consider that the result of yesterday's proceedings leaves the President's position intact, as it places him above party strifes. They recommend the Government to keep within the prescriptions of the Constitution.

TURCO-RUSSIAN WAR.

Comparative Forces of the Russians and Turks in Bulgaria--The Russian Loss at Kars.

BERLIN, Nov. 20.—The semi-official Militar Vochenblatt states that the Russian forces in Bulgaria and the Dobrudscha number 280,000 men and the Turkish forces 240,000,

LONDON, Nov. 20.—A Russian official report states that the Russian losses at the capture of Kars was 2,500 men. Among the officers killed were General Belliasky and Lieutenant Colonel Melikoff.

Tribute of Respect.

HALL OF ARCHER LODGE.
November 3d, 1877.

At a regular meeting of Archer Lodge, No. 165, of Free and Accepted Masons, held on the 3d day of November, 1877, the following Preamble and Resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased our Divine Master to remove from our midst, our much loved brother, Everett D. Whitley, who was born in the State of North Carolina, on the 10th day of October, A. D., 1827, and died in Johnston county, North Carolina on the 27th day of October, 1877,

Resolved 1st. That while we deeply deplore the loss of our brother, we meekly bow in submission to the will of the Great Architect of the universe.

Resolved 2d. That we deeply sympathize with his family in their bereavement and commend them to the watchful care of our Merciful Heavenly Father.

Resolved 3d. That this Lodge wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days and that these resolutions be published in the Raleigh NEWS.

That a copy be spread on the minutes of this Lodge and another be furnished the family of our deceased brother.

J. B. WALL, Secretary.

A Brutal Affair.

[Special correspondence of the News.]

LUMBERTON, N. C.,
Nov. 17th 1877.

To the Editor of the News:

SIR: An awful tragedy occurred in our county (Robeson) on the 8th inst. One Guilford Jones who was said to be semi-idiotic, and was supported by the county, was put in charge of his brother Wiley Jones. On the 6th of this month, Wiley and his wife Mary was seen beating Guilford severely.

Nothing more was heard of it until Thursday following when his dead body was found near their house. Our Coroner was notified of the fact, and immediately proceeded to the spot. Parties testified that they had on several occasions seen these brutal wretches beating their brother unmercifully. The evidence was so very strong that a warrant was issued, and an officer arrested the guilty pair. They are now confined in our county jail awaiting their trial. The parties were all colored.

A Suit Against the City of Raleigh.

The Wilmington Star of the 18th inst. says:

"Mr. City Clerk and Treasurer Savage has been summoned to appear at Raleigh, at the session of the United States Circuit Court, which commences on Monday, the 26th inst., as a witness in a suit against the city, brought by R. R. Swepson, for the recovery of the value of certain bonds issued since the war in satisfaction for certain claims for services rendered during the war, and which are alleged to be unconstitutional inasmuch as the services for which they were issued in payment were in aid of the rebellion. The bonds alluded to embrace Nos. 172 to 181 inclusive.

Fire at Toronto.

TORONTO, November 20.—J. Oliver's planing mill, with a quantity of lumber, was burned to-day. Loss $25,000.

(Correspondence of the News.)

JACKSON, N. C., Nov. 19th, 1877.

Editor News:

SIR: The fall term of the Superior Court of Northampton county, was opened to-day, Judge McKoy on the bench. This is the first Court held here by Judge McKoy and the people one and all rejoice that for the first time since the war, they have a Judge to administer justice who has the confidence of the entire community, for integrity, legal learning and impartiality. One whose judgment can not be warped by politics, personal or pecuniary considerations. One whose chief aim is to administer equal justice to every one, without respect to color, previous condition or party affiliations, who may appear at the bar of justice, over which he presides.

The Judge delivered an able impressive and elaborate charge of two hours length to the grand jury, covering the routine duties of that body.

The grand jury is said to be very intelligent, and has but four negroes on it. The petit jury is composed entirely of white men, and is above the average standard of jurymen for intelligence.

There are fifty-three cases on the criminal docket—two for murder, a few for larceny. and the others mostly for assault and battery. Solicitor C. M. Cooke is busy preparing his cases and thinks he will clear his docket much sooner this session of the court than formerly. The criminal docket is only about half as large as usual, and this is attributed to the prohibition of the sale of liquor throughout the county. No retail license has been issude in the county for several years to sell any kind of spirituous liquors, and the great improvement in morals is apparent from the record of the Criminal Court above alluded to.

The allegations in the murder cases are both of the first degree, and are as follows: Jesse D. Brantly is charged with shooting John M. Moody, (both white,) in June last, near Garysburg. Brantly accosted Moody for saying that he, Brantly, had sworn to a lie. Hot words passed between them, when both drew revolvers and commenced firing, exchanging several shots, only one taking effect, killing Moody.

The counsel for Brantly are W. H. Day, of Halifax, R. B. Peebles, and Gen. Matt. W. Ransom. Solicitor Cooke has associated with him for the State, Judge Fowle, of Raleigh, and A. J. Burton, of Halifax. The case is set for trial on Thursday, but it is thought by some that the case may be removed to another county.

Israel Savage, colored, is charged with killing Joseph Hill, colored. About three weeks ago near Rich Square, under the following circumstances; they quarrelled in the morning, while picking cotton, Savage went to his house, procured a hatchet, returned, and while Hill was kneeling down at his work, Savage approached him in the rear and struck him a violent blow with the hatchet which felled him dead on the spot, crushing his skull badly.

There are seventeen bastardy cases on the docket, fifteen colored and the remainder white. One hundred and eighty-four civil cases, all chronic and should have been disposed of long since, and twenty-six cases on the appearance docket, mostly for debt. The solicitor thinks he will dispose of the criminal docket this week, so that the whole of next week the court will be occupied in hearing and determining civil suits. In addition to members of the bar from other counties, Judge D. A. Barnes, of Hertford and E. L. C. Ward of the Murfreesboro Enquirer are in attendance on the court.

The attendance to-day was not so large, as usual owing no doubt to the apprehension of the farmers, being placed on the jury, to try the murder cases.

We will keep you advised of the progress of the courts, in another letter.

We had the pleasure of meeting Rogers, of the Rural Messenger, C. H. Foster correspondent of the N. Y. Herald, Day, of the Roanoke News.

An attractive feature of the court square, was a display of a large number of fine buggies, manufactured by J. N. Seldon, of Jackson.

Southern Mail Contractors.

[From the Congressional Record, Nov. 17.]

Mr. Waddell, from the Committee on the Post-Office and Post-Roads, reported back, with a recommendation that the same be passed, House joint resolution No. 20, to apply the amount appropriated by the act of Congres approved March 3, 1877, to pay certain southern mail contractors.

The joint resolution provides that the Secretary of the Treasury shall begin at once to pay, in full, to the late mail contractors of the States of Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, South Carolina, Texas, Tennessee, Virginia, and West Virginia, their heirs or legal representatives, the amounts due under their respective contracts for the years 1859, 1860, and 1861; and the appropriation of $375,000, made by act approved March 3, 1877, shall be immediately available for said payments; provided, that no payments shall be made for services rendered after May 31, 1861, when discontinuance was ordered by the Postmaster-General; and the provisions of section 3,480 of the Revised Statutes of the United States shall not be applicable to the payments herein authorized; and that all acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Marriage of Senator Withers' Daughter.

[Petersburg Index-Appeal.]

Last week Miss Ellie, ninth daughter of Senator Withers, of Virginia, in her nineteenth year, was married to Mr. Putney, a wealthy Boston widower of fifty or more summers. The bride is nearly six feet tall, of remarkable beauty and intelligence, able to talk politics, quote John Stuart Mill, and ride an untamed horse. The marriage of a daughter of Senator Withers has long been a regular annual occurrence, but it cannot be kept up much longer; there remains only two unmarried—Miss Willie and Miss Virginia Secessia. The latter was born on the day Virginia seceded.

Fractured His Wife's Skull With a Brick.

[Charlotte Observer.]

Last Saturday afternoon a negro man named Tom Black, who lives on a farm of Capt. R. D. Graham, in Lemly township. becoming angry with one of his children on account of some offence it had committed, proceeded to give it a severe chastisement, in the course of which his wife interfered, with a view of causing him to desist. He seized and put her out of the door and shut it, when she went around to the rear of the house and began throwing stones and other missiles at her husband through the window. Black presently closed this, and proceeded with his punishment of the child, when his wife returned to the front door, battered it down and hurled a brickbat through it. The husband picked up the brick and throwing it back with great force, struck the woman on the head, producing a fracture of the skull. Dr. J. B. Alexander, who examined the injury, pronounced it very dangerous and the probabilities are that the woman will die.

PRESIDENT LINCOLN AND GEN. LEE.

The Offer to General Lee of the Command of the United States Army.

(Hon. A. B. Magruder in the Phila. Weekly Times.)

In 1868—several years after the war—a Senator in Congress had the temerity to make the charge that General Lee had applied to President Lincoln for the command of the Federal army destined to invade and subdue the Southern States, and that, being refused, from pique and resentment he turned and offered his word in aid of the Southern cause, and thus was raised to the chief command of the rebel forces. On the instant, Mr. Reverdy Johnson, of Maryland, himself a Union man, denounced the statement as untrue, saying that although he had not the authority of the accused to deny it, General Lee's lofty character and unstained honor alone sufficed to repel the charge. This furnished the occasion for General Lee to give, through Mr. Johnson, not alone the conclusive proof of the incorrectness of the charge but the clear evidence that he had himself declined, from a stern sense of duty and honor, the very preferment which he was falsely accused of coveting. None can tel the extraordinary story in better terms than General Lee himself, as contained in the following modest and characteristic letter addressed by him at the time to the Hon. Reverdy Johnson, who, not long before his death, avouched to the contributor its entire authenticity:

LEXINGTON, VA., Feb. 25, 1868.

Hon. Reverdy Johnson, United States Senate, Washington:

MY DEAR SIR—My attention has been called to the official report of the debate in the Senate of the United States of the 19th inst., in which you did me the kindness to doubt the correctness of the statement made by the Hon. Simon Cameron in regard to myself. I desire that you may feel certain of my conduct on the occasion referred to, so far as my individual statement can make you so.

I never intimated to any one that I desired the command of the United States Army, nor did I ever have a conversation but with one gentleman (Mr. Francis Preston Blair) on the subject, which was at his invitation and, as I understood, at the instance of President Lincoln. After listening to his remarks, I declined the offer he made me to take command of the army that was to be brought into the field, stating as candidly and courteously as I could that though opposed to secession and deprecating war I could take no part in an invasion of the Southern States.

I went directly from the interview with Mr. Blair to the office of General Scott, and told him of the proposition that had been made to me and my decision. Upon reflection after returning to my home, I concluded that I ought no longer to retain the commission I held in the United States Army, and on the second morning thereafter I forwarded my resignation to General Scott.

At the time I hoped that peace would have been preserved, that some way would have been found to save the country from the calamities of war, and I then had no other intention than to pass the remaider of my life as a private citizen. Two days afterward, upon the invitation of the Governor of Virginia, I repaired to Richmond, found the convention then in session had passed the ordinance withdrawing the State from the Union, and accepted the commission of commander of its forces which was tendered me.

These are the simple facts of the case, and they show that Mr. Cameron has been misinformed.

Your obedient servant,
R. E. LEE.

A Minister's Elopement.

On Thursday, it is alleged, the Rev. G. Davis, member of the Christian church, residing in Jackson township, on the confines of Shelby county, Ohio, eloped with Mrs. Sarah Bennett, from near Logansville. The reverend gentleman was well known and respected, and his dastardly conduct is a matter of the utmost surprise and grief to his friends and bereaved family. He left a wife and six children to suffer for the disgrace of a fallen father. Mrs. Bennett leaves a husband and three children. There is no clue as to where the guilty couple have gone.

Thousands of the most prominent and intelligent persons throughout the land have testified to the true merits of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. We advise sufferers to use it.

WHAT IS ACCOMPLISHED BY VEGETINE.

Vegetine will renew the blood, give tone to the stomach, restore the liver to its proper action, stimulate the kidneys so as to enable them to perform the functions devolving upon them carry off the putrid humors, regulate the bowels and restore the whole system to working order This is precisely what Vegetine does, and this is the exact way through which it has accomplished so many wonderful cures as may be seen by the following unquestionable evidence:

A Husband's Statement of the Great Suffering of His Wife.

HARWICH, Mass., Sept. 24, 1875.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:

Dear Sir—I feel it my duty to say a word in praise of Vegetine. My wife has been troubled with a bad humor for several years, which she inherited from her parents. We have tried several physicians and a great many different kinds of medicine with but little benefit. She was so much emaciated that we had almost despaired of her ever being any better. Hearing of the Vegetine we resolved to try once more, and she commenced using it last March, and has been improving in health ever since. From 104 pounds she has advanced to 135 pounds, having gained 31 pounds in seven months, and is now able to be about her work. In short, she believes that Vecetine has been the means of saving her life, and that she cannot say too much in its praise. If it pleases you to make use of this statement you are at liberty to do so. She has taken fifteen bottles and is still using it, and I can safely recommend it as a great blood purifier.

Yours respectfully,
JOSEPH L. BUTLER.

The Wife's Statement.

HARWICH, Mass., Sept. 24, 1875.

MR. STEVENS:

I feel I must say a few words about the Vegetine. The physicians said I had so many complaints they did not know what to give me. They said I had a bad humor, add I had the kidney complaint, the liver complaint, my heart was very weak. and I don't think there is any one who suffered more with the piles than I did. The physicians all said it was no use for me to take medicine, I could not live through the month of May. I truly think the Vegetine has saved my life, and my neighbors say that the Vegetine has really accomplished a wonderful cure in my case, and I tell every one whom I meet it is the best medicine in the world.

Yours, very thankfully,
MRS. J. L. BUTLER.

VEGETINE.

Reliable Evidence.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:

Dear Sir—I mill most cheerfully add my test msny to the great number you have already received in favor of your great and good medicine, Vegetine, for I do not think enough can be said in its praise, for I was troubled over 30 years with that dreadful disease, Catarrh, and had such bad coughing spells that it would seem as though I could never breathe any more, and Vegetine has cured me, and I do feel to thank God all the time that there is so good a medicine as Vegetine, and I also think it one of the medicines for coughs and weak-sinking feeling at the stomach, and advise everybody to take the Vegetine, for I can assure them it is one of the best medicines that ever was.

Judge Guild, of Nashville, was one of the militia officers who received Lafayette during his visit to that city in 1824; and this is the way the Judge describes the Frenchman: "Lafayette was a stout, well-formed man, about five feet ten inches high, and large head, a hazel eye, sallow color, a large fleshy nose, a mouth well formed, denoting firmness and constancy, with large elephant-looking ears."

Senator Gordon has introduced in the Senate a resolution that a chime of bells intended for St. Michael's Church, in Charleston, S. C., be admitted to this country duty free. This chime of bells was presented to the old colony of South Carolina by the English Crown. During the Revolutionary war they were captured and sent to England, where they have remained ever since. An English merchant, whose name is not given, now proposes to send them back to South Carolina.

Richmond Whig: Capt. Henry Chisholm, of the schooner Pandora, has been missing since Tuesday, the 13th instant. He was last seen on Tuesday afternoon about 2 o'clock, when he parted with Mr. Robert Styll, the harbor master, at McNamara's saloon, in Rocketts, saying he was going to his vessel at the Chesapeake and Ohio wharves. He never reached there. It is likely that the missing man was either drowned in the river or dock, or has been the victim of some foul play, as he had on his person a considerable sum of money.

A lively pugilistic encounter took place in Danville, Va., at the Railroad depot, Saturday evening, between Capt. R. G. Trezevant, a conductor on the road, and W. T. Manning, the fighting editor of the Danville News, who had written him down as a "dogmatical, uncouth, unaccommodating" conductor, who generally acted "as though the whole road belonged to him." After the fight had lasted about 15 or 20 minutes and the blood began flowing freely from Capt. Trezevant's nose, he remarked: "Manning, I see I can't whip you, and think we both have enough." To this Manning replied: "All right, sir, if you are satisfied, I am done; otherwise the fight can go on." The affair created great excitement in Danville.

NORTH AND SOUTH CAROLINA JUSTICE.

The work of punishing the thievish Republican officials in South Carolina goes bravely on. Cardozo, ex-Treasurer, Smalls, a Congressman, and Carpenter, editor of the Republican organ, have been convicted of fraud upon the State, and will incur the penalties of the law. Two hundred other officials are in immediate danger of indictment. If they escape it will be through the magnanimity of the Hampton government. Chief among the two hundred is Senator Patterson. His ultimate conviction is a foregone conclusion. Twenty-four ex-members of the Legislature have sworn that they took bribes to vote for him as Senator. The imprisonment of this arch-offender as a felon in the Penitentiary or in the common jail will be the culmination of the justice which now so vigorously pursues the robbers who plundered South Carolina in the hey-day of triumphant Radicalism. The entire country will applaud such a consummation. It would be a glorious sight to see the broadcloth stripped from his Senatorial back and the convict's robes substituted instead. Unless all the signs are deceptive, the future holds such a refreshing spectacle in store for us.

The South Carolina authorities have in these prosecutions set an example to the whole country, which should be followed. Why allow the great thieves and robbers now living among us to go unpunished? Does time throw a mantle on the rank offences of the rich and the powerful? Does amnesty attach as a matter of course to the crimes of those who steal from the State? Is there no law for State criminals in North Carolina? These enquiries naturally press themselves upon our minds when we look at the blessed work going on in our sister State, and compare the condition and the prospects of those who plundered her treasury with the condition and prospects of the men who robbed North Carolina and trampled upon her laws and constitution, playing at once the thief and the tyrant. Though millions of the people's treasure was stolen during the carnival of corruption in 1868-'69 and thereabouts; though frauds unnumbered were committed; though the rights and liberties of the citizen were grossly violated by the State authorities—not one of the criminals and corruptionists has been punished, except the Republican Governor who suffered impeachment and removal from office. All the rest, high and low, native and carpet-bag, white and black, have escaped the lash of outraged justice.

The contrast between the action of the two States in this regard is not a very flattering one to North Carolina. The excuse in our behalf is that the Democratic party came into power by degrees, instead of leaping to the throne at one bound, as was done in South Carolina. Had we got possession of the executive branch of the State government in 1872, it is possible that prosecutions of the Republican thieves would have taken place. Now that we have complete control of the State government, is it too late to investigate the rascalities of the Republican party, its aiders and abettors, and bring the offenders to justice? Or is it the will of the people of this State that the bribery, frauds and corruption of 1868-'69 shall go forever unpunished?

77TH N. C. REPORTS.

This volume of our Supreme Court Reports has now been out some weeks and has met the favorable criticism of the legal profession. It embraces the cases decided at June Term, 1877. The reporter, Attorney General Kenan, has again done his work well.

The printing and binding of the 77th N. C. Reports, (executed at the NEWS Job Office and Bindery) is not surpassed if equalled by any of the volumes that have gone before it. Indeed the reporter and the printer have turned out in the 76th and 77th volumes of N. C. Reports work that will not find its superior in the Reports of any State of the Union.

The volume before us contains some interesting cases and we would be tempted to make a cursory review of the more important of them but for the fact that a digest of the opinion in each case appeared in our columns regularly the morning after each opinion was filed, and besides the profession now have the volume itself before them.

In looking over the volume it is interesting to note the number of times each Judge was overruled or affirmed. It is but fair to say however that this is a very unsafe guide as to the merits of a Judge.

Judge EURE was affirmed in 6 cases and reversed in 4. Judge MOORE affirmed in 4, reversed in 6. Judge SEYMOUR affirmed in 5, reversed in 3. Judge MCKOY affirmed in 10, reversed in 5. Judge BUXTON affirmed in 15, reversed in 12. Judge COX was affirmed in 5 and reversed in 4. Judge KERR affirmed in 12, reversed in 6. Judge CLOUD affirmed in 10, reversed in 2—(very good for Cloud.) Judge SCHENCK affirmed in 6, reversed in 8. Judge FURCHES affirmed in 9, reversed in 3. Judge HENRY had only two appeals from him and was reversed in both. Judge CANNON suffered the same fate, two appeals and reversed in both. Judge MEARES, (of the Wilmington Criminal Court,) affirmed in 1 and reversed in 1. Judge WATTS affirmed in 1 and reversed in 1. Judge MITCHELL had one appeal only, in which he was affirmed. Judge CLARKE had up one appeal only, and in that he was reversed. The cases of the last three Judges were decided by them some time since, but have been passed upon by the Supreme Court since they went out of office. Altogether there were 145 appeals at the June Term, 1877, from the decisions of 16 Judges, the Supreme Court affirming 85 decisions and reversing 60.

THE French cabinet has resigned. This puts a new phase on the situation. All danger of civil war seems to have passed over.

HARNETT is one of those counties which stand in need of more postal facilities. Though a medium sized county, it has only nine post-offices at present within its borders, to-wit: Lillington, Harrington, Norval, Chalk Level, Spout Springs, Barclaysville, Averasborough, Winslow, and Bunn's Level. If we are rightly informed, each of these has but a weekly mail. Yet the centre of the county is within about 17 miles of one railroad and 18 miles of another, and distant from Fayetteville less than thirty miles, and from Raleigh about the same. The lack of post-offices and more frequent post routes retards the growth of business and subjects the inhabitants of the county to serious inconvenience in the conduct of their affairs. There is not a single money order office in the county.

THE annual report of the Auditor, on the condition of the public debt of Virginia, for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1877, has been made public. The amount of the public debt proper, exclusive of State bonds and certificates held by the literary fund and the sinking fund, is $29,350,826.38; the debt as reported 1st of October, 1876, was $29,489,326.38—which is a reduction in the last year of $138,500. The amount of the West Virginia portion is $15,239,370.74. The annual interest on the debt proper of $29,350,826.38, at full rates, is $1,742,865.83. The whole amount of interest due and in arrear at this time, at full rates, is $4,188,141.33. The burden is a heavy one, but the Virginians seem determined not to repudiate it.

How Custer Died.

[From the interview between Sitting Bull and the New York Herald correspondent.]

Correspondent—'Did you hear from your people how he died? Did he die on horseback?'

S. B.—[No. None of them died on horseback.]

'All were dismounted?'

'Yes.'

'And Custer, the Long Hair?'

THE LAST TO DIE.

'Well, I have understood that there were a great many brave men in that fight, and that from time to time, while it was going on, they were shot down like pigs. They could not help themselves. One by one the officers fell. I believe the Long Hair rode across once from this place down here (meaning the place where Tom Custer's and Smith's companies were killed) to this place up here (indicating the spot on the map where Custer fell), but I am not sure about this. Any way it was said that up there where the last fight took place, where the last stand was made, the Long Hair stood like a sheaf of corn with all the ears fallen around him."

'Not wounded?'

'No.'

'How many stood by him?'

'A few.'

'When did he fall?'

'He killed a man when he fell. He laughed.'

'You mean he cried out?'

'No, he laughed, he had fired his last shot.'

'From a carbine?'

'No, a pistol.'

'Did he stand up after he first fell?'

'He rose up on his hands and tried another shot, but his pistol would not go off.'

'Was any one else standing up when he fell down?'

'One man was kneeling; that was all. But he died before the Long Hair. All this was far up on the bluffs, far away from the Sioux encampments. I did not see it. It is told to me. But it is true.'

NOT SCALPED.

'The Long Hair was not scalped?'

'No. My people did not want his scalp.'

'Why?'

'I have said he was a great chief.'

How American Women Maltreat Their Poor Husbands.

[Springfield Republican.]

Dr. Theodore Christlieb, the German "evangelical," whose sweetness and light so took captive the rest of the evangelicals at the alliance meeting in New York some years ago, has found a serious blot upon our civilization in the great republic. As Colonel Higginson tells the story in the Woman's Journal, Professor Christlieb confided to a recent American visitor that he had great fears for the future of our nation because "the spirit of Christ" was not here. Pressed to explain his meaning, he did not cite any of those financial or social scandals that make us uneasy, but "seriously declared that on more than one occasion he had heard an American married woman say to her husband, 'Dear, will you bring me my shawl?' and the husband had brought it!" and further, that he had seen a man come home and find his wife sitting in the best chair in the parlor, and not only did she not rise to get his dressing-gown and slippers, but she did not rise at all, and let him find his own chair as well as other comforts. These were the things that this profound professor, named after the "love of Christ," found to evidence a dangerous lack of that article in the United States. It is hard to overestimate the value of this well-weighed criticism from so eminent a source, based, as it is, on undeniable facts. The female woman in this country has unquestionably arrived at a degree of individualism which places her in many things on a level with man. She cannot be depended upon to get out of bed at 4 o'clock of a winter morning to make a fire and get breakfast, while her lord and master takes a beauty nap, with anything like the certainty that she once could. She won't eat up the chicken's gizzard while there is any breast left—no, nor afterward, either. She objects to fill her husband's pipe and "start" it with a few gentle puffs, as any professor's spouse ought to. She opens her husband's letters on the same ground that he opens her's. A man has no right here to whip his wife, or to harness her to a plow, as the German farmers do. In fact, it is getting so in our country that a wife has almost as many rights as a husband, and the conviction is slowly gaining ground that marriage is a matter of mutual service and attention. We owe Professor Christlieb something for bringing this to our notice. He may have stopped us on the brink of a precipice, as it were.

The Bone and Sinew

Of our country have often—especially about election time—been made the subject of laudation; but when those useful parts of the human structure become too visible in consequence of leanness, they can scarcely be called graceful. The eye delights not to dwell upon angles and ridges in either man or woman. Moreover, extreme emaciation is a sign of imperfect digestion and consequent poverty of the blood. Both these evils are remedied by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which render digestion and assimilation certainties, in consequence of which the blood acquires richness and the body substance. Thus are the hollow places filled up and the angles rounded off. Through the instrumentality of this peerless aid to digestion and promoter of physical well-being, the body rapidly gains in vigor, color returns to the hollow cheek, the appetite improves, nervous symptons vanish, and a healthful impetus is given to every vital function.

An Open Letter to the Public.

NEW YORK, October 1, 1877.

I have devoted twenty years of patient study to the Liver and its relations to the human body, in search of a remedy which would restore it, when diseased, to its normal condition. The result of that labor has been the production of

TUTT'S LIVER PILLS.

Their popularity has become so extended and the demand so great as to induce unscrupulous parties to counterfeit them, thereby ROBBING ME of the reward, and the afflicted of their virtues.

To Caution the Public

and protect them from vile impositions, have adopted a new label, which bears my trade-mark and notice of its entry in the Office of the Libracian of Congress, also my signature, thus:

W. H. Tutt M. D.

☞ TO COUNTERFEIT THIS IS FORGERY. ☜

Before purchasing, examine the label closely.

THE GENUINE TUTT'S PILLS

exert a peculiar influence on the system. Their action is prompt, and their good effects are felt in a few hours. A quarter of a century of the study of the Liver has demonstrated that it exerts a greater influence over the system than any other organ of the body, and when diseased the entire organism is deranged. It is specially for the healing of this vital organ that I have spent so many years of toil, and having found the remedy, which has proved the greatest boon ever furnished the afflicted. Shall they be deprived of its benefiss, and a vile imitation imposed upon them?

Let the honest people of America see to it that they are not defrauded. Scrutinize the label closely, see that it bears all the marks above mentioned, and buy the medicine only from respectable dealers. It can be found everywhere. Very respectfully,

W. H. TUTT.

God's Plans.

Oh, yet we trust that somehow good,
Will be the final goal of ill,
To pangs of nature, sins of will,
Defects of doubt, and taints of blood;

That nothing walks with aimless feet;
That not one life shall be destroyed
Or cast as rubbish to the void,
When God hath made the pile complete;

That not a worm is cloven in vain;
That not a moth with vain desire
Is shrivel'd in a fruitless fire
Or but subserves another's gain.

Behold, we know not anything;
I can but trust that good shall fall
At last—far off—at last, to all,
And every winter change to spring.
Tennyson's "In Memoriam."

NEWS NOTES.

There are now 1,039 students at Yale. The Faculty number 97.

The number of Russians killed, wounded, and missing, from the commencement of the war to Nov. 7, is [illegible],873.

They call him Uncle Dick Bishop now, and they say that they will make him Governor of Ohio again in 1879 and President of the United States in 1880.

Bob Ingersoll says the more he is abused the larger houses he draws, and that if the thing keeps up much longer the county won't be able to contain his hearers—not by a large majority.

In New York some evenings ago Prof. Paul V. Cartier performed the unparallelled feat of waltzing for seven consecutive hours without a pause. There were frequent changes of partners and musicians but no cessation in the motion.

Rev. Dr. William Alvin Bartlett, now of Indianapolis, who was on intimate terms with Senator Morton and visited him often during his last illness, says that the Senator uniformly declined to hold religious conversation with any one, and that he died without any change of mind on that subject.

A Columbus, Ga., lady has been found so kind hearted that she will never beat an egg.—Richmond Enquirer. But she whips up her dresses.—Louisville Journal. Yes, and smacks her lips, too.—New York Commercial Advertiser. Yes, and bangs her hair, too.—Philadelphia Bulletin. Also cuts her poor relations.—Norristown Herald. And murders her English.—N. Y. Herald.

State Librarian Conner, of Indiana, has this to say about that Texas battle flag: "Being custodian of the rebel flag which the Governor of Texas desires returned, I simply have to say that while I have control of it it will remain in the State Library. It is a trophy of the heroism of my comrades of Indiana, both living and dead, and if the Governor of Texas cannot be 'pacified' without its return, he and his soldiers of the 'lost cause' will have to go unpacified."

The latest sensation in Cleveland, Ohio, is that of a German named John Koch, marrying a colored woman, Amelia Philips. The father of the young man has had the bride, the groom, and the colored minister arrested. The most astonishing feature of the case is that it develops the fact that there yet exists a law in Ohio prohibiting miscegenation, and fixing the penalty therefor at imprisonment and one hundred dollars fine.

Hon. Charles Francis Adams has written a letter, addressed to Lieut. Gov. Dorsheimer, of New York, in which he reiterates his assertion that President Hayes was elected by fraud, and declares that "it does no credit to the Republican party that it has not instituted an honest investigation of the facts of the case last year." Mr. Adams says it seems to him that it is "the duty of all honest men to uphold the great maxim of law, as well as of morals, that fraud spoils everything that it touches."

A curious method of evading a will is reported from Warsaw. A girl of twenty-two was left a fortune on condition of marrying. Her relatives pressed an unwelcome suiter upon her, hoping to share the money with him if he should be accepted, and with the prospect of getting the whole if he was refused. The lady, instead of giving way to despair, made a bargain with an elderly mendicant of eighty-two, who, for a stated sum, consented to become her husband, as a matter of form and to disappear afterward. The arrangement was carried out, all the beggars of the town attending the ceremony. The property was duly transferred to the bride, and she started forthwith alone upon a tour of the Continent.

The whole outlay of the United Kingdom for intoxicating drinks in 1876 was estimated at $700,000,000; that of the United States for the same year is said to have been $600,000,000. But John Bull draws a very handsome revenue from this source. The income of Great Britian for 1876 was about $400,000,000, and of this amount $170,000,000 came from customs duties on wine and spirits, and excise duties on spirits, malt, and licenses. In 1862 the customs duties on imported wine and spirits amounted to $18,750,000; for the year ending on the 31st of March last they were $37,500,000. Excise duties on spirits, malt and licenses in 1862 came to $85,000,000; for the year ending on the 31st of March last they were over $132,000,000.

[illegible] Repudiators Cause Hard Times.

[New York Tribune.]

The secret of the difficulty is and has been want of confidence on the part of those who have money. The lands and mines, the mills and railroads are ready and the skilled workmen long for employment. But capital hesitates. Cursing it and railing at it will not remove its fear. Forty thousand talkers, with the voice of a Kelly, or the incendiary suggestiveness of a Phillips, would not lessen the apprehension of those who have money. Crazy theorizing about elasticity of currency, or rights of labor, does not change the opinion of the men whose money is needed to light the fires and start the wheels of industry. They sit and wait until they are satisfied that the people of this country are honest enough to pay debts.

Court Incident--Another Vance-ism.

[Pee Dee Bee.]

The case of the State vs. Bass being on trial, Capt. Waring, for the defendant, introduced Martha A. Wray, with evident assurance that she could swear facts enough to acquit his client. The said Martha, however, was as perverse as a mother-in-law, and swore positively to the defendant's guilt. The Captain, with evident chagrin, arose and said: "May it please your Honor, in justice to myself I must say that I am not to blame for this result; the woman misled me."

Vance (quickly): "May it please your Honor, this plea won't do; it was overruled in the Garden of Eden."

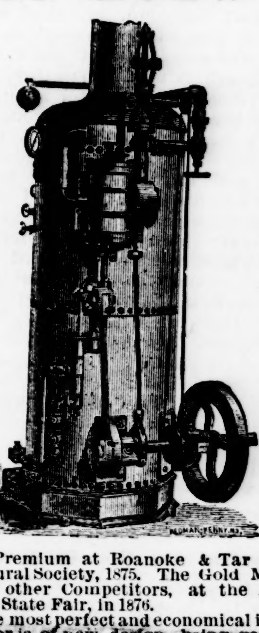
The Godwin
AGRICULTURAL ENGINE



AND SAFETY BOILER WAS AWARDED THE
First Premium at Roanoke & Tar River Agricultural Society, 1875. The Gold Medal, over all other Competitors, at the North Carolina State Fair, in 1876.
It is the most perfect and economical in use. The Boiler is of new design, being vertical, yet all the heating surface is entirely covered with water, thus preventing the fire from destroying the tubes as is the case, in a few years, in all upright tubular boilers in which the fire passes through the tubes above the water line, soon destroying the exposed end of the tubes causing them to leak.

A Brilliant Meteor.

Yesterday afternoon, about 4½ o'clock, the attention of many persons was attracted by the flashing of a meteor as it rushed across the northern sky.

Starting from a point in the westward near the zenith, it descended in a northerly direction. The flight was not rapid, and the motion regular, so that the flaming body could be readily seen. It seemed (if one can in such cases estimate size) to be of about 6 inches diameter. The motion through the atmosphere caused a trailing flame to sweep ut behind it, thus producing the ap- rance of a shell and fuse ignited.

Its height above the earth did not n to be more than six hundred feet, n, having reached a point a few de- above the horizon, it exploded a slight noise.

its passage through the air it left ail of pure white smoke, plainly vis- e from the point of starting to that explosion. This regularly beautiful of smoke remained for many min- s, indicating precisely the course en by the meteor, but under the in- ence of a light breeze which sprang soon lost its regular shape and ed into fantastic forms.

ohn G. Whittier.

We have received from the publishers the Atlantic Monthly a fine life size ene s of the poet, John Greenleaf hittier, which is from a pencil por- it of Mr. J. E. Baker, said to be one he best crayon artists in the country. he picture is spoken of by many of the iends of Mr. Whittier, as an excellent keness. It is 24x30 inches inches in size and offered only to the subscribers and purchasers of the Alantic Monthly, the price being $4.00 for the Magazine, or $5.900 for the Magazine and portrait. Address Hurd & Haughton, New York.

Another Excursion.

We thought the season for excursions ended with the summer months, not so however. We learn that arrangements are being made for a series of cheap holiday excursions to Baltimore, Washington City, and other points North. The first will probably come off at an early day. The fare for the round trip will be very low, so as to afford all classes of our people an opportunity to visit the city of Baltimore, and the National Capital while Congress is in session. We hope to give full particulars of the proposed excursions, within a few days.

Wake County Criminal Court.

TUESDAY, Nov. 20, 1877.

Court met pursuant to adjournment. The case of the State against Andrew Mooningham (alias Mooneyham), which was set for this day, was called.

A jury was secured after exhausting the regular panel and sixty-eight of the one hundred special venire which had been summoned by order of the court for the case. The following are the names of the jurors:

Gideon Liles, white and Spencer Garrett, colored, of the regular panel; M. L. Haynes, James Baker, col., Wm. Utley, S. C. Hobby, C. H. Weathers, H. D. Yates, S. D. Williams, James J. Sandiford, T. H. Massey and T. C. Smith.

Counsel for the State, Solicitor Devereux and R. C. Badger, Esq.

Counsel for the defence, Messrs. A. M. Lewis and T. M. Argo.

The jury having been empaneled and placed in charge of Deputy Sheriff, L. W. Hood, the court, at 1:15, took a recess until 2:30 p. m.

At the hour set, the court again met and the trial proceeded.

The first witness called for the State was Mr. Joseph Blake, who, being sworn says: Thinks it was on the 13th of September last, about 9 or 10 o'clock, Mr. Sewell and myself were called out to the Smithfield road which runs by my place, by two white men who were 30 or 40 steps up the road; they did not tell us their names at the time; one of them said he wanted to hire to pick out cotton; Mr. Sewell, who was the superintendent of my farm, hired him to pick cotton; the other man said he did not want to hire, that he brought a wagon to move a man, but did not know what man. At that time Mooningham walked up, having his axe on his shoulder, and witness said to the man, that is the man that wants to move. Mooningham's son came up with him. I remarked that Mr. Mooningham had cut a path through the old field, but he must not travel it, as there was another way. The man then said he did not know there was any difficulty about the moving; I told him there was no trouble about his moving; that he (Mooningham) owed me some money and was going to move on that account, but that he had reported that he had other reasons for moving, which I told him was a slander on the man (Seawell) on whom he had reported them. Seawell was sitting or squatting at the time, some 8 or 10 feet off, writing or scratching on the ground with a stick. After I got through talking, Seawell said to Mooningham, "how about these reports you are circulating through the neighborhood?" (Here the witness described the relative position of the parties at the time. Seawell was about 6 feet from witness on one side and Mooningham nearly the same distance on the other, while the two men were some three feet from witness. Witness was whittling with his knife at the time.)

To Seawell's question Mooningham answered, "I've told nothing but the truth; didn't you carry candy for my daughter all the year?" Seawell answered "No." Didn't you say you loved her so you couldn't stay out of the field where she was?" Seawell again answered "No." Seawell then said, "I am going to indict you and make you prove what you have reported about me." Mooningham again said that Seawell had carried candy for his daughter, for he had seen him do it.

Seawell then got up and advanced toward Mooningham, raised his hand and pointing his finger towards him, and exclaiming, "you lie! you lie!" Thereupon Mooningham took his ax from his shoulder and struck Seawell a blow on the head with the eye (poli) of the ax and knocked him down. Seawell fell with his head about 10 feet from where Mooningham was standing when he gave the blow. It was given so quick after Seawell said "you lie," that it would have been almost impossible to speak between the word and the blow. The lick was on the top of the head, a little to one side, between the forehead and crown or mold. As Mooningham struck the blow he exclaimed, "don't you call me a liar." Thought Mooningham struck as hard as he could. He used both hands.

[The axe was here exhibited in Court—a common poll-axe, weighing some six or seven gounds.]

As soon as the lick was given, I ordered the two men to arrest Mooningham; they hesitated and I commanded them to arrest him, as I was an officer of the law. One of the men then took Mooningham by the arm. I asked Mooningham why he had done so, and he answered, "Because he called me a liar, and if you call me so I will hit you." Witness then took Mooningham to the house, and afterwards to the store, about 200 yards down the road, and put some men to guard him and protect him. (Witness afterward explained that he meant by "protecting him," that he feared deceased's brother, who lived close by, might attempt to kill him.)

When witness took Mooningham away he told one of the men to stay with Seawell and the other to go for a bucket of water. After leaving Mooningham under guard at the store, witness went back and found Seawell partially up on his knees and throwing up. He then sent for a buggy and had Seawell taken to an office in his yard, a distance, the way he had to go, of 300 or 400 yards. After he got Seawell to the office he went to the store where Mooningham was. In response to his orders about guarding and protecting him, Mooningham said he did not want his protection, and that if Jimmie Seawell bothered him he would do him as he had done Henry. This was some 15 minutes after the killing, and while going from the house to the store.

On returning to the House found his wife and one or perhaps both the men and some servants with Seawell. Went out and sent for a doctor. Seawell was lying on the floor with his hand under his head and a wet handkerchief or towel on his head.

(Witness then stated in regard to sending for a justice, Mr. Rhodes, who came and after examining the case had required Mooningham to give bail in $500. About that time, which was after 12 o'clock, Seawell died. Witness followed officer Faison who had the prisoner in charge, told him of Seawell's death, when he stopped and took him back to the store and he was commiteed to jail on a charge of murder.)

Witness was then asked to give the conversation between himself and the prisoner at the store, before Seawell died. He stated that he had said to Mooningham that he was sorry he had acted as he had, and the latter replied, with an oath, that he would do it again if it were to do. Witness then told him he did not know the damage he had done and the trouble it would bring on him, to which the prisoner made no reply, except to say that no man should give him the lie. This was all the reason he gave for what he had done.

Witness then, in answer to questions, gave a conversation he had had with Mooningham about half hour before the affair in regard to Mooninghams leaving him. (Mooningham had been hired as a farm hand.) He gave as his reason that he was dissatisfied because Seawell had been interfering with his daughter, bringing her candy; that he had seen it in January or February, himself. Witness told prisoner he was slandering Seawell, and injuring his own daughter; that Seawell was as dependent upon his character to get employment as he was, and that he ought not to do so; and further that that was not the true cause of his leaving, but it was because Seawell, in the goodness of his heart, had let him get in debt, and that was why he wished to leave. This was 15 or 20 minutes before the killing; Mooningham had just finished the path and was going towards his house. Thought he looked sorry.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Seawell was not married. Seawell's brother James was a tenant on the place and lived 200 yards off. Witness had hird prisoner for the year for $150, and his son for $75; he lived on the plantation, 400 yards from the house. Prisoner has two grown daughters, one smaller one and other children, besides the son. The daughters are not married. The daughters were hired occasionally by the day to work in the farm. Columbia the younger, worked most: Sarah did not work much. There were seven regular hands on the farm including Mooningham and son. Mooningham lived with me last year except a few months last fall, came back first of this year. Had heard from Mr. Mial on Tuesday that the prisoner was going to leave and the reason why he was going; that it was on account of Seawell's conduct towards his daughter. The killing was on Wednesday. Had also heard from the hands he was going to Griffis's. Had told Seawell Wednesday morning not to let Mooningham take a wagon through the cotton field. Seawell said he was willing for Mooningham to leave, as he was hard to get along with.

I did tell Mooningham I would indict him for cutting the road through the pines. The reason he told Mooningham that he was not going away on account of the treatment to his daughter as he had alleged to Mial was, that on Tuesday Seawell had gone out to where Columbia was hanging out clothes at witness's, and had a talk with her, that witness went up to them and Seawell said in presence of the girl that she had declared if her father said such things he told a lie, and that the girl did not dispute it. When witness told prisoner this he answered, "She don't talk so to me." That prisoner had told witness the girl had come to her mother and complained of how Seawell had acted towards her, and that her mother had advised her how to conduct herself—didn't recollect the prisoner saying the girl had come to him about the matter.

The remainder of the cross examination was mostly a repetition of the answers in the direct examination. When Seawell came up to him after the conversation about the path, just before the meeting at the road, he asked witness "how did you and Mooningham make it?" I told him I did not know whether Mooningham would go or stay. Don't think deceased had a pistol about him.

I told Lee, (the man that brought the wagon to move Mooningham,) that I would indict Mooningham and would indict Griffis for hiring him, but did not say I would indict Lee. I said to Lee that Seawell had a matter to settle with Mooningham before he left, and that Griffis would have to stand Mooningham's security to keep him out of jail, if Seawell established what he had heard It was then that Seawell asked Mooningham "what about the things you told Mr. Mail?" Mooningham answered "I told him nothing but the truth. Then Seawell got up and went towards Mooningham, but Mooningham did not go towards him.

Pending the cross examination the court adjourned to this morning 10 o'clock.

Report of the Special Committee on the Display of Ornamental Work by the Female Schools of North Carolina at the Late State Fair.

To the Executive Committee of the North Carolina Agricultural Society: The committee selected to examine and award the premium for the finest display of ornamental work, painting, &c., from any female school in North Carolina within the past three years, respectfully report that they this day have carefully examined all such ornamental work, paintings, &c., on exhibition by the different schools, and voted upon the several displays by ballot. While the committee were of opinion that there was much to admire in the creditable displays of the several competing schools, the vote was unanimous in favor of the Peace Institute, and the organ given by Messrs. E. P. Needham & Son, of New York was awarded to that school.

The committee was composed of the following persons: R. H. Battle, Jr., Chairman, Mrs. Jesse J. Yeates, Mrs. Sampson, Miss Emma Leach, Miss Blanche Fentress, Hon. Montford McGehee, J. W. Fries, Azaniah Graves and A. T. London, Esqrs.

Respectfully submitted,
R. H. BATTLE, JR.
Chairman.

Raleigh, Oct. 17th, 1877.

Penitentiary Recruits.

The following prisoners were brought in yesterday, and will at once lend a hand in aiding in the erection of our public works.

Sheriff Joseph Cobb, of Edgecombe brought up George Johnson, colored, convicted of larceny, and sentenced to 3 years imprisonment.

Sheriff Z. F. Long of Rockingham, came down with the following delegation from his county Sam. Johnson, larceny, 2 years; Lamb. Patterson, manslaughter, 6 years; William Stansill, larceny, 2 years. All the above are colored. With this batch of prisoners was brought the well known Allen Carter, white, whose death sentence was lately commuted to imprisonment for life. He is a man of 65 years of age, and so the life sentence will not be a lengthy one, probably. He was condemned for the murder of a man by the name of Lilly, in 1865.

W. E. Paris, Deputy Sheriff of Warren county, brought in 5 prisoners, all colored, and all for the same crime, larceny. Caroline Jones, 1 year; Henry Wills, 2 years; Grief Tillman, 2 years; Ed. Tillman, 2 years, and James Baskerville, 5 years.

"Tis True

That at Simpson's drug store you will always find a large variety of select and very choice cigars, and tobaccos. One purchase is enough to convince. Call early and you will call often. *

A Favorite Brand.

The "Tiger" brand of Durham smoking tobacco has grown so widely in popular favor in this city that it may justly be said of it, it is a "favorite brand," for sale by Geo. Zeigler next door to Yarboro House. *

Another reduction in the price of Zephyr and Shetland Wool at Isaac Œttinger's. Prices that will suit all those who have been ordering from New York. Come and see for yourself. *

Tooth Brushes.

Pescud, Lee & Co., druggists, west side Fayetteville street, seven doars below capitol square, have received another supply of the best English tooth brushes. Also fine toilet soaps, perfumeries, &c. *

Township Trustees.

The following correspondence explains itself, and the information it contains may be found useful to many in other counties and townships:

CLAYTON TOWNSHIP,
Johnston County, Oct. 23, 1877.

Gen. Thos. S. Kenan Attorney General:

SIR: You will please give your opinion whether the township trustees are abolished or not before the next election of county commission.

Has the township trustees the power to alter or establish new roads within their respective townships?

A reply to the above at your earliest opportunity will be highly regarded by
Yours very respectfully,
J. LEACH BANKS, J. P.

ANSWER.

Dear Sir: The Justices of the Peace in each township, I think, succeed to the rights and should perform the duties of the former board of township trustees, so far as the manage of roads, bridges, appointment of overseers, &c., is concerned. I do not believe the Legislature intended to interfere with this particular duty, although the trustees, as a corporate body, was abolished. In other words the management in such cases continues for the present at least. Yours, &c.,
THOS. S. KENAN.

Raleigh, Oct. 26, 1877.

Alamance Gleaner: George Patterson, Esq., was very seriously and it may be dangerously hurt, last Wednesday. He hitched one mule to a two-horse wagon for the purpose of moving it a short distance, and taking hold of the bridle started to lead the mule off when it became frightened at something and made a dash, throwing him down and jerking the wagon over him. The extent of his injuries, it is feared, are not fully known, as they are internal. Two of his ribs are known to be broken near the spine.

Hillsboro Recorder: When over the Chatham line last week we had the pleasure of learning that a disease akin to that which has been sweeping off the hogs, has laid hold of the dogs, and the curs who have grinned defiance at taxation and public opinion are melting away before a foe who respects neither. We welcome this new ally to our cause, and hope he may enlarge his field of action.

Southern Home: A little negro girl about 3 years old on the plantation of Mr. Charles McGinnis, in Providence Township, was burned to death on the 10th inst., by her clothes taking fire.

Please Write and Get Our Prices

On sash. doors, blinds, &c. We keep in stock all sizes of white pine sash, doors and blinds. We warrant these to be the best goods made; thoroughly seasoned, no shrinkage, they are lighter than yellow pine, therefore lasting longer. They take paint better, and are smoother than yellow pine. Prices 25 to 50 per cent. cheaper than such goods are usually sold for. If you are going to build or repair a house, you will save money by writing to Julius Lewis & Co., hardware merchants, Raleigh, N. C. for a catalogue of goods they deal in. *

L. R. Wyatt,

(Successor to Rand & Wyatt,) will continue the wholesale and retail grocery and cotton business at the old stand, where he will be pleased to serve customers and friends of the late firm with First Class Flour, Bacon, Lard, Sugar, Coffe, Molasses, Salt, Bagging and Ties &c., at prices to suit.

Consignments of Cotton, Flour &c., solicited for storage and sale which will have prompt attention in sales and returns. *

The only Man

Who has nice office rooms in Holleman Building for rent. See E. G. Brown, the only man who has an Insurance and Real Estate Agency combined, in the City. It will pay you to insure with him. *

He or She

That would borrow sweet odors from the flowers of nature, will find the same in Simpson's "Triple Extracts," by Loubourg, and at small cost. Truly excellent. *

BUSINESS NOTICES.

J. C. S. Lumsden's stove and tinware house, Fayetteville street, makes a speciality of the "Old North State" Cook Stove, Little Harry night lamps and house furnishing goods of every description. Special attention paid to the repair of sewing machines, guns, pistols, tinware, old stoves, &c.

How it is Done.

The first object in life with the American people is to "get rich;" the second, how to regain good health. The first can be obtained by energy, honesty and saving; the second, (good health) by using GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER. Should you be a despondent sufferer from any of the effects of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Indigestion, &c., such as Sick Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Sour Stomach, Habitual Costiveness, Dizziness of the Head, Nervous Prostration, Low Spirits, &c., you need not suffer another day. Two doses of AUGUST FLOWER will relieve you at once. Sample Bottles 10 cents. Regular size 75 cents. Positively sold by all first-class Druggists in the U. S. *

Trunks, satchells, valises, shawl-straps and a full line of rubbers can now be found at Heller Bros., shoe store.

MARRIAGES.

SMEDES—HERVEY—At Christ Church, in this city, on the 20th inst., Rt. Rev Bishop Lyman and Rev. Dr. Marshall officiating, Rev. Bennett Smedes, Rector of St. Mary's School, to Henrietta, daughter of the late Frederick Harvey, Esq., of Louisiana.

In Hillsboro, on the 13th inst., by Rev. J. W. Wheeler, Jones W. Watson, Jr., of Chapel Hill, to Mrs. Geo. Anna, grand-daughter of Judge George Laws, of Hillsboro.

DEATHS.

John C. Koch, Esq., a prominent German citizen of Wilmington, died suddenly at his residence in that city on Sunday last, about 10 o'clock, from an attack of apoplexy.

The Pearl of Excellence

is Gouraud's Olympian Cream. This unrivaled preparation imparts to sallow, red or pimply complexions a beauty that conveys no suggestion of artificial appliance. For sale by all Druggists. F. H. Heartt, agent.
